

MR. AND MRS. C. H. WHITE

Who have returned from Tucson, Arizona to make Livingston their future home. Mrs. White use to be Miss Cora Adams, who was one of Livingston's most charming and popular young ladies. Mr. White was for a long time one of the dispatchers in the Livingston office and since then has been filling a similar position in the West. We are certainly glad to know that this splendid young couple have decided to cast their lot with us.

CONWAY

Our little village is as dry as a chip in the liquor line since New Year set in and we hope it will remain so one year.—John Wood, Lee Berry and Gertrude Pullins entered Berea College first of the year with the winter term.—Born on January 1st, to Mrs. Ida Wood 8lb. girl baby. J. J. is the proud-est man on this side of the county.—Mr. Henry Wood our R. R. agt. will go to Hyattsville Garrard Co., to take charge of the R. R. business at that place in course of ten days. We do not know at this writing who will take his place here.

M. L. Kelton has been appointed School trustee to fill the unexpired time of D. C. Pullins who resigned.—The shooting affair that was mentioned in last week's Signal took place at Boone three miles above here Christmas instead of Conway.—Mrs. M. L. Kelton has returned from Junction City where she visited her son. Will during the holidays.—The Round Stone Land Company have shut their mill down and will not saw any more until spring on acct. of bad roads and mud; people can not get timber in to keep them sawing.—From the number of students passed here going to Berea College since first of the year Rockcastle Co., will be pretty well represented there this term.—Mr. Chambers Oldham made a business trip to Mt. Vernon this week.—Mr. W. S. Beldon will go to Cincinnati this week in the Freight Depot for the L. & N.—Uncle Scott will make them a good man.—Miss Nettie Olden of Boone visited her Bros. here last week.—B. B. Beldon the bustling trapper here says he would catch plenty of varmints if they would go in traps he has out.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY A SAFE MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup but when given as soon as the croup cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Chas. C. Davis.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy sweet and warm. With kissy places on her neck and dimples on her arms. Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain—Mother gave her Chamberlain's, now she's well again. Sold by Chas. C. Davis.

Mrs. Sigmon has been an invalid for many years and about two weeks ago she was stricken with pneumonia and died at 11 A. M. Monday. She was a devoted christian having confessed her sins many years ago. She was a member of the Baptist church and had many years ago requested Rev. A. J. Pike to preach her funeral, which he did in a very impressive way. Mrs. Sigmon was certainly a good woman and will be missed very much by every body that knew her. After a very able funeral discourse by Rev. A. J. Pike at the Baptist church she was peacefully laid to rest in the Baptist Church Cemetery alongside of her daughter who had gone on before her several years ago. She leaves a kind and loving husband and one son and two grand-daughters besides a large number of sorrowing friends. Let us all strive to be better that we may be able to meet this christian woman in Heaven. Mrs. Sigmon was 57 years of age.

PATHTIC STORY.

"A little child will lead them." Those who witnessed an incident on a Louisville and Nashville passenger train Saturday night the truth of it can not be doubted. The fact is, it is proved a truth every day in more ways than one, but in the case of Egbert Saylers, of Livingston, fourteen years old he proved it in a very unusual way, and in a way not calculated to please all concerned. In this case the "child led them" a rather merry chase. What this child doesn't know about the railroad business and the way of the world, too, is not worth knowing. What he does know would make some of the "old heads" bow their heads in shame.

Egbert Saylers has a sister Hazel five years old, and has been living at Livingston with her step-mother. He decided to bring his sister to Louisville to the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home. How he knew what to do with his sister or that there was a Masonic Widows and Orphans Home here, no one knows, but he did, and Saturday night he spirited his little sister away and took her to Corbin and at midnight boarded a Knoxville division Louisville and Nashville passenger train.

In order to avoid a hitch in the plans, he decided that a sleeping car would be the best place to ride and, telling the Pullman conductor that he had a sleeping car ticket he went into the car. But he didn't have the ticket. He knew that his relatives would go through the train at Livingston, and this was his way of fooling them. His father and mother are both dead, and his father was a Mason. He therefore thought it a good plan to wear his father's emblem of the order. And he did so, but concealed it from view. True to his prediction, a relative, so he says, boarded the train to look for the children, but did not think to look in the sleeping car. So they continued on their way unmolested, but without money. R. T. DeSpain, of Louisville, and C. A. Linchelle, of Central City both Masons, at this time were called to the attention of the boy and his sister by the boy, who showed his fathers emblem. It was then in the early hours of morning and Hazel was fast asleep but Egbert was as wide awake as you find, them, always alert for the welfare of his little sister.

Mrs. Kinchelle and De Spain took charge of the children and brought them to Louisville, and Mr. Kinchelle gives the following account:

"The boy, the name of whom is Egbert Saylers, as he gives it to me was with his sister, Hazel. The understanding of the world and its ways as possessed by him I think is remarkable. He told me relatives had threatened to notify the police at Louisville if he ran away and that they knew that he proposed to do so. He suggested that he get off of the train at South Louisville which he did, as it might be that the police would be waiting at Tenth street Station. We took a Fourth avenue car and transferred to West Chestnut street en route to the home of the boy's aunt here. where he will stay until we can get him transferred to the Orphan's Home. In order to do this we must get the approval of the lodge at Livingston, and we will take up the matter with them."

"How the boy got the notion in his head to take his sister I do not know, but he did."

"It was a touching scene at the home of the boy's aunt. He was all excitement, endeavoring to tell the details of his experience, was gratifying to see his aunt congratulate him as she did. She said that she would keep him and his sister until other arrangements are made."

Mr. Kinchelle is a traveling salesman and boards at the Willard Hotel. Mr. De Spain had attended a funeral at Barbourville and was on his way home.—Courier Journal.

Martin Owens is very low and not expected to live but a short while.—Mrs. Jacob Elder of Brodhead is spending a few days with relatives in this community.—Uncle Stephen Elder has been very bad off with pneumonia.—Arthur Scott is numbered among the sick.—On Monday Jan. the 6th, 8 A. M. the death angel visited the home of Rev. Martin Owens and claimed for its victim his aged companion. For some time she had been very low with complication of disease, all that medical aid and physician could do was to no avail. She was a member of the Christian church. She was 81 years of age. She leaves a feeble husband and two sons, Wm. Watson of Nina Garrard county and Dr. J. F. Watson of Brodhead to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, besides a host of friends and relatives. The remains were laid away Tuesday in the Lawrence cemetery to await the summons of the last great day.

If a cough once gets into your system it acts on every muscle and fibre of the body and makes you ache all over. It especially effects the intestines and makes you constipated, so in order to get rid of a cold thoroughly and without delay you should not take anything that will tend to constipate. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Chas. ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce G. T. JOHNSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The jury in the Powers case was unable to agree on a verdict and was discharged by Judge Morris, who overruled a motion for bail and fixed July 6 as the date for the next trial. The jury stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction. Powers' friends and attorneys have taken steps toward requesting a pardon from Gov. Willson, and a long telegram was sent the Chief Executive, informing him how the jury stood. It is said petitions will be circulated throughout Kentucky and the United States in the hope that thousands of persons will sign, asking Gov. Willson to issue a pardon. Ten of the jurors signed an affidavit stating that from the evidence they do not believe Jim Howard fired the shot that killed Gov. Goebel.

At a conference between Gov. Wilson, R. K. Smith and H. A. Walker, representing the American Tobacco Company, held in the Governor's office, Mr. Smith agreed to arrange a meeting between the executive committee of the Burley Tobacco Society and President James B. Duke, of the American Tobacco Company. State Senator J. W. Newman has prepared a resolution which was introduced on the first day of the present session of the General assembly for the appointment of a committee of seven members to investigate the tobacco conditions thoroughly and report the cause for the recent disorders.

BROWN MEMORIAL SCHOOL

Owing to business engagements of the principal, Brown Memorial will not open till Feb. 3rd instead of Jan. 20th. There will be no spring intermission and the eighteen week's term will close the first week in June as last year, the annual picnic being on the 4th.

Two other schools have been opened in town. Every child has a chance to attend somewhere, and at a small cost. Hence the primary department can be cut down without harm to anyone. Seventy-five was a larger number than could be comfortably cared for last year; but forty will be admitted this term. Other departments will be treated in the same manner. Parents who have shown them selves in earnest with regard to the advancement of their children receive preference.

Note the following taken from the catalogue on expenses:

In order that the work may be less hampered and that the principal may have more time to relieve the financial burden of the Board, which has many other schools throughout our country to assist, tuition must be paid in advance or secured by note, as in other schools on the opening day of each term. No deduction will be made for loss of time on entering, or for withdrawal before the close of the session, except in cases of protracted illness.

WARILY WATCHING

Both Sides In Interesting Senatorial Contest Keeping Eyes Open to the Main Chance.

PROBABILITY OF A DEADLOCK

Open Rumors of a Break From the Beckham Ranks Creates Engrossing Situation at the Opening of Kentucky's General Assembly.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 7.—For many reasons the present session of the Kentucky legislature promises to be a memorable one, and Kentucky has had several memorable legislatures, particularly in 1884, in 1896 and in 1900.

Of course, the chief interest centers in the race for United States senator and the possibility of a deadlock. Governor Beckham is the nominee of the Democratic party for senator, but there have been persistent rumors that some of the Democratic senators and representatives will not vote for him. The legislature in joint ballot stands 73 Democrats to 65 Republicans, the senate having 22 Democrats and 16 Republicans, while the house has 51 Democrats and 49 Republicans. If as many as four Democrats refuse to vote for Beckham, a deadlock will result. It has been frequently asserted in the newspapers that this Democratic legislator or that one, would not support Beckham, but so far no one has openly announced that he would vote against him.

On the Republican side it seems to be conceded that ex-Governor W. O. Bradley will be nominated to oppose Beckham, and some of the Republican leaders have declared positively that the house would be organized by them and not by the Democrats. If this be true then a deadlock is sure to result.

The first vote for senator will not be taken till Jan. 21, although the legislature convenes on Jan. 7. The senate and house will vote separately in their respective chambers on Jan. 21 and will meet in joint session in the house the following day to ratify the election if someone was elected, or to take another ballot if no one was elected the day before.

Each side is warily watching the other now and neither side is doing any talking as to plans, but each is willing to take advantage of any mistake made by the others. The deplorable feature of it all is that it is almost sure to bring about much bitterness if a deadlock comes. There will be a number of contests for seats in the house filed by both Republicans and Democrats. These will be fought over bitterly, as the house is so close that one vote may decide the fate of every contestant for a seat, for if one contestant is seated he will naturally vote with his party to unseat others.

If one Democrat in the house refuses to vote with his party, the house will be deadlocked and cannot be organized till some other man deserts or the deserter comes back. In such an event James E. Stone, chief clerk of the last house, will preside, as the law makes it his duty to "call the house to order and preside till the speaker is elected." If a deadlock comes Mr. Stone will preside from day to day till someone "comes over" or "goes over" and votes for the "other fellow." If all the talk about a deadlock proves to be "moonshine," then W. J. Gooch, Democrat, of Simpson county, will be elected speaker of the house and James E. Stone chief clerk.

There seems to be no chance of a deadlock in the senate, but that body will have its troubles as well as the house, if all indications are true. In 1896 when W. J. Worthington (Rep.) was lieutenant governor, the majority of the senators were Democrats, so they passed a rule providing for a special committee to select all the standing committees of the senate. Therefore it had been the custom for the lieutenant governor, who is ex-officio president of the senate, to appoint all the committees, probably for the reason that the lieutenant governor and the majority in the senate had always been of the same political party, since the war.

It has been stated that the Democrats in the present senate would repeat what was done in 1896, as Wm. H. Cox, the present lieutenant governor, is a Republican. Cox has served two terms in the senate and has been very popular with the Democrats in that body, so it is possible that they may agree to let him appoint the committees. The senate and house meet today, but it is probable the standing committees will not be appointed before next Saturday or Monday, so it will be several days before it is determined who will name the senate committees.

One of the measures that will be bitterly fought over this session will be the bill or bills providing for redistricting the state into senatorial and representative districts. The Democratic court of appeals declared the redistricting of two years ago unconstitutional because of the unequal division of population, some of the districts having 12,000, while others had 40,000. The court went further and said the present districts were in reality unconstitutionally made up, but as the elections in them had been held for so many years, the act creating them would not now be declared unconstitutional, because it would be too late.

IT DOES THE BUSINESS
Mr. R. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton Main, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c. at Chas. C. Davis' drug store.

DEWITT'S CARBOLIZED WITCH HAZEL SALVE For Piles, Burns, Sores.

against public policy. It is always a hard fight to pass a satisfactory redistricting bill, even where one political party has a big majority, but it will be especially so this year because of the almost even division of the two parties in the legislature. As the present districts are considered to be to the advantage of the Democrats, it is presumed the Republicans will make the hardest fight to have new districts created that will give a more equal division of population.

It was expected two years ago that the present legislature would be able to hold its sessions in the handsome new statehouse, but no provision has yet been made for furnishing the new building and making it habitable. The building itself is very near completion, it being all under roof except a small part of the center dome, and much of the interior work is completed. It is expected that it will take another appropriation of $250,000 to pay for fitting up the new structure in proper style with desks, file-boxes, carpets, furniture, etc., and the present legislature will be asked to make the appropriation for that purpose. The total appropriations so far made for the new capital amount to $1,250,000, which will complete it, all but the furnishings. According to the estimates of the state's financial officers, it will not be necessary to increase the rate of taxation to complete the new building, as no increase was made when the other appropriations were made, and especially as there is over a million dollar balance in the state treasury now.

Yesterday was "moving day" at the statehouse, all the new Republican officials taking charge, the Democrats retiring. In many of the offices where the work is necessarily complicated, a number of the old clerks will be retained for several months or until the new clerks get trained for the work. It is expected, however, that in six months all the Democratic clerks will be replaced by Republicans.

The attorney general under the present law is allowed no clerks or assistants, and is probably the hardest-worked official in the statehouse. A strong effort will be made this session to have a law passed providing him with at least two assistants and a stenographer.

Governor Willson has been having a strenuous time since his inauguration a month ago, and what with office-seekers, "night-riders," and the coming of the legislature, he has not been "treading the primrose path of dalliance." The governor has some fads, but they are fads that are tempered with common sense. For instance, he says he will appoint no man to office who applies for it and simply signs the initials of his first name. That is, J. H. Smith will not be considered at all, but John H. Smith will be. He says he has quit talking politics now and is trying earnestly to be the governor for all the people and using every means in his power to enforce the people's laws that are on the statute books.

Arch has been said about the governor being placed on the national ticket next year as a candidate for vice president, but he positively forbids any discussion of the subject. He says he has been elected to serve as governor for four years, and if he lives he purposes to carry out the contract made with the people last election day.

Probably the hardest nut the new governor will have to crack will be the settlement of the tobacco question and the arrest and conviction of the "night riders" who have been destroying tobacco warehouses in Hopkinsville and Russellville. It is the general belief that under the present laws it will be almost impossible to indict or convict the "night riders," because the membership of the tobacco associations is so large that it will be almost impossible to get a jury that will not have several friends and fellow-members of the "night riders" on it. This being the case, the present legislature will be asked to evolve a new law by which that class of law-breakers may be reached and punished. Governor Willson's recommendations along this line in his message to the legislature are strong and to the point. He seems to have set his heart on solving this question and it is determined that the law shall be upheld and every man's property and life made secure from lawless groups of men who operate at night behind masks.

Governor Willson has announced that he is in favor of all the state institutions being managed by non-partisan boards, and says he will not recommend that the legislature make any appropriation for any educational institution that is maintained by the state and managed by trustees who all belong to the same political party. As an instance he cites the State College at Lexington, all of its trustees being Democrats. It is proper to state, however, that those who are in position to know state that while the trustees of the State College are all Democrats, a majority of the teachers and instructors are Republicans, so that even matters up in a measure and heaves it off the odium of being known as a partisan college.

The temperance question will be another factor that will enter largely into this legislative session. A bill to extend the present county unit law so as to include every county in the state irrespective of the size of the cities it contains, will be presented early in the session, and it is believed the bill will be enacted. The liquor representatives will fight such a measure to the last.

BARGAINS

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES,

FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of James L. Arnold, a bankrupt.

On this 7. day of January A. D. 1908, on considering the petition of the aforesaid bankrupt for discharge, filed on the first day of January A. D. 1908, it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had up on the same on the 28. day of January, A. D. 1908, before said court at Covington in said district, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as near hereto as practicable, and that notice thereof be published in the MT. VERNON SIGNAL, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons an interest may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

Witness the Honorable A. M. J. Cochran, Judge of said Court and the seal thereof, at London in said district, on the 7. day of January, A. D. 1908.

Guaranteed Cure for Constipation

After watching results for sixteen years, during which time many millions of bottles were sold and thousands of letters from users were received, the originators of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound, feel safe in guaranteeing it in the various diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as chronic constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, bloated stomach, heartburn, etc. There is an absolute guarantee to refund the purchase price if Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin does not do what is claimed for it.

For sixteen years this remedy has been recommended for stomach, liver and bowel complaints and the fact that each year more and more families are using it proves that it has the merits claimed for it, and the letters we are constantly receiving prove that it is curing these diseases. Hence the guarantee is justified.

Mr. Alston, of Boynton, I. T., considers Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best laxative on the market because, to use his own words, "it does all you claim for it and I do not know of another medicine of its kind that does." Mrs. Williams, of Sidney, Ill., writes that she has used it in her home all her married life and would not keep house without it. Thousands of others have written to the same effect.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Do not get any other laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PEPSIN SYRUP CO., 17, Washington, D. C.

SAVE THIS ANYWAY.

Here is a simple home made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a tea-spoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst form of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cures the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

The body of Thomas McEwin the expert Machinist from the Pullman shops, Ludlow, who disappeared from Livingston Sunday night was found in Roundstone creek yesterday. McEwin had gone to Livingston, to make trip back to Cincinnati on one of the sleepers to ascertain cause of car riding so roughly. He was very drunk and it is supposed that while wandering around in the darkness, fell into the creek, as there was no sign of any foul play. A hat found on creek bank led to search made in the creek. The body was found about 300 yards below where his hat was found.

W. J. There are now 130 men employed at the different ballast quarries in the county and indications are that more than 200 will be at work inside of three months when tunnel No. 1 plant starts up.

BEREA BOOMING.

The winter term of Berea College opened New Year's Day with the largest attendance ever known in all departments. The Normal is particularly fine, with several new instructors, special work in Nature Study and Sciences and Practice Teaching and Theory far ahead of anything before known in Kentucky. The steam cookers have made the board as popular as it is cheap. Students are pouring in every day, and there are so many classes that every one can be placed with others like himself and make more rapid progress. There are many bright entertainments on the program for this winter and the students are all looking forward to the Mountain Congress in Feb. as really more important than the meeting of the Legislature at Frankfort.

CARD OF THANKS.

Words cannot express our appreciation of those friends who have shared with us the lonely vigils by the bedside of our loved one. No sweeter memory can live in any heart than the memory of their untiring devotion to the one who has just left us. The waves of sorrow break upon every shore, and we can but hope that friends as true may gather around each one of them should sorrow invade their homes.

A PROMPT, EFFECTIVE REMEDY FOR ALL FORMS OF RHEUMATISM
Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Kidney Trouble and Kindred Diseases.
GIVES QUICK RELIEF
Applied externally it affords almost instant relief from pain, while permanent results are being effected by taking it internally, purifying the blood, dissolving the poisonous substance and removing it from the system.

DR. S. D. BLAND
Of Houston, Ga., writes:
"I had been a sufferer for a number of years with lumbago and sciatica in my right leg, and tried all the remedies that I could get from medical works and the result was nothing that gave the relief desired from 'DROPS.' I shall prescribe it to my practice for rheumatism and kindred diseases."

DR. C. L. GATES
Hancock, Minn., writes:
"A little girl here had such a weak back caused by rheumatism and kidney trouble that she could not stand on her feet. The moment they put her down on the floor she would scream with pain. I treated her with 'DROPS' and today she runs around as well and happy as can be. I prescribe 'DROPS' for my patients and use it in my practice."

TALK ABOUT TAXES

Various State Grangers On the Subject.

Demand For Study of the Question by the Farmer For His Own Interest.

The farmers composing the Grange, an organization that has done much to study the real interests of the farmer, has been taking a good deal of interest in the subject of taxation lately and some very pertinent utterances on this question have been given out in the addresses of the Masters at annual sessions of various state Granges.

At a recent meeting of the Washington State Grange, the Master gave considerable attention to the question of taxation. He said, in part:

"I urge every Grange in this state to take up the study of taxation in all its phases earnestly and seriously during the coming year, for I feel strongly that we farmers have hardly realized the importance of thoroughly understanding the fundamental principles of taxation."

"In considering the subject of state taxes, in the brief time I have been able to give it since my mind has been fully aroused to its importance, I have come to doubt very much the wisdom of our present method of assessing state taxes. Section 2 of Article 7 of our state constitution is as follows: 'The legislature shall provide by law a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation on all property in the state, according to its value in money.' (This is the general property tax similar to Kentucky.)"

"The above constitutional provision is similar to that of many of the western states and enjoys a system of taxation which has been tried in practically all the states of the Union. It requires the application of the same rules of taxation to forms of property totally different in character. Most of the older states, such as New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, have constitutions which impose no restraint on the power of the legislature, or very little more restraint than that imposed by the federal constitution. Those states have developed systems of taxation in harmony with modern conditions."

"The attempt to tax all kinds of property by the same rules, has in all times, and in all countries, imposed heavier burdens upon rural districts than cities, and in a large degree has measured the tax to be paid by each citizen by the amount of his consumption, rather than by the opportunity he enjoys to acquire wealth under the protection of the state."

"The plan adopted by our neighbor, Oregon, is to apportion the state tax in proportion to the revenue raised by each county. Oregon made the mistake of not carrying out the principle to its logical conclusion. The tax should be apportioned in proportion to the entire revenue raised by each county, and all the taxing districts within each county."

"It is very easy to see that the more highly developed and more densely populated a county may be, the more money it needs for local purposes in proportion to its taxable values, and the greater is the power to pay taxes. The tax apportioned in this manner will shift from the poorer and remote rural counties the burden they now bear, and impose it on the more thickly settled and prosperous counties. This change would do away with the universal temptation to undervalue property in order to shift the state tax to other communities. A study of the experience of other states shows that one of the greatest evils has been this incentive to undervalue. It produces inequality and dissatisfaction, if not downright fraud."

The Ohio State Grange.

In Ohio they are proposing an amendment to the constitution that will permit of a classification of the sources of revenue, such as is now in effect in Pennsylvania. The difficulty with the Ohio constitution is exactly similar to that in Kentucky. They are proposing there an amendment to the constitution which will make it read this way: 'Taxes shall be levied at a uniform rate upon all property of the same class.' The Ohio constitution now requires that taxes shall be uniform upon all classes of property the provision being similar to that of the constitution of Kentucky. The Master, Honorable F. A. Derthick commenting upon the proposed amendment to the constitution, said:

"To pull up every stake in our constitution seems heroic treatment, and if done would throw upon the people added responsibility in the selection of their representatives. If classification is to be the plan adopted, it should be left to a commission of at least five members appointed by the governor, one from each of the four sisters, whose combined efforts have made us all we are—one from manufacture, one from mining, one from commerce, one from agriculture. This board should be reinforced by the appointment of a member of well-known integrity and great legal ability."

"The farmers are not committed to the idea of classification, but we wish to join in the study of tax revision. The Ohio State Grange, assembled in annual session, December 11 to 13, 1906, by a unanimous vote expressed the desire of an organized body of taxpayers, fifty thousand strong, to cooperate with all other interests in devising a tax system that shall be just and fair to every legitimate interest in the state."

WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM?

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It may not give you relief from pain but it will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to anyone afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by Chas. C. Davis.
